

ANNA E. HALL RESEARCH GUIDE

Sources That Showcase Religious Activism

The Blessed Mothers: African-American Missionary Women in English-speaking Colonial Africa, 1850–1950. Their History, Their Work and Their Impact

By: Tata, Fabian Tah

Published by: The Florida State University ProQuest Dissertations Publishing

Date: 2002

Secondary Sources

Called to Witness, Called to Serve: African American Methodist Women in Liberian Missions, 1834–1934.

By: Wimberly, Anne Streaty

Published by: "Methodist History 34, no. 2"

Date: 1996

The Legacy of Anna E. Hall, African American Missionary to Liberia

By: McGill, Jenny

Published by: "International Bulletin of Mission Research"

Date: 2002

Black women in religious institutions." Down by the riverside: readings in African American religion, edited by Larry George Murphy.

By: Carpenter, Delores C.

Published by: NYU Press

Date: 2000.

Anna E. Hall collection.

Published by: Robert W. Woodruff Library of the Atlanta University Center, Inc

Date: 2016.

Former Missionary Cited at Clark

Published by: Atlanta Daily World (1932-)

Date: 13 June 1952

Miss Anna E. Hall Is Given Surprise Fete By Atlanta Conference Women

Published by: Atlanta Daily World (1932-).

Date: March 1952

Central And Friends to Honor Miss Hall Sunday; Dr. Brooks To Speak

Published by: Atlanta Daily World (1932-)

Date: 15 February 1958

Miss Anna Hall Dies; Outstanding Citizen

Published by: Atlanta Daily World (1932-)

Date: 08 March 1964

Social Swirl: Allen Caldwell's Fete Holiday Guests; Miss Hall Is Back From Inauguration

By: Woolcock, Ozeil Fryer

Published by: Atlanta Daily World (1932-)

Date: 04 April 1956

New Dormitory At Cammon To Honor Miss Hall

Published by: Atlanta Daily World (1932-)

Date: 03 March 1954